为他的"人为"。对于国际"一年"国际各种第二,对他的一种分析体系

production of the second

Speaker Called to Order for Beferring to His Investigations as "Yellow Chemistry"-Columbia Instructor Says That His Food Tests Mean Nothing.

of the themistry bureau of the Department of Agriculture, who had been conducting the ex. iments with the "poison squad" to determine the effect of certain adulterations in food products, was accused of starting a school of "yellow chemistry" at a meeting of the Chemists' Club last evening at which Dr. Wiley was present and spoke.

Few if any of the chemists seemed to agree with his views in regard to the adulteration of food products, and at one stage the presicing officer had to remind a speaker of sicing officer had to remind the definition of the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant.

Zitta told the police that Jones went to his street, was the complainant. Dr. Harvey Washington Wiley, the head the courtesy due the guest of the evening. Dr. Wiley had come on from Washington on purpose to explain some of his views to his brother chemists. They seemed to have familiarized themselves with them in advance and were primed for bear. Dr. Wiley said that he had taken the viewpoint of the consumer in the agitation for pure

"The idea of food adulteration everywhere is that it is something injurious to health," he said, "but this is not always so. The injury to health is often the least important. A great many adulterations are not injurious. When, however, chemicals are introduced in quantities which render them impossible of detection the consumer is deceived, and I say that it is a moral

"If you make a proposition that the use of these be stated on the labels there is a howlof opposition. Already one concern has seen that it is better to come out in the open. and to you who are interested in patent this ground the better it will be for you

"If any American citizen wants a food product containing any preservative he ought to be allowed to have it, but I say that those who don't want such a product ought not to be dec ived and compelled to take it. "Our experiments show that what was regarded as the least harmful, namely borax, is distinctly injurious to health and that seven and a half grains taken every day for fifty days will injure a young and healthy man. Other adulterants, like sulphurous acid, produced worse effects. They should be excluded from food products.

"There is no necessity in this country to "If any American citizen wants a food pro !-

food products.

"There is no necessity in this country to preserve food for more than one season. To use these things to preserve foods for five years is a moral crime when the public isn't informed that they are used. There is no need of cold storage for more than one season. It improves certain things for a certain time. After that cold storage makes them deteriorate rapidly. False labelling is the greatest evil of all."

Dr. Wiley got a little applause when he labelling is the greatest evil of all."

Dr. Wiley got a little applause when he sat down, after reading some letters attacking him. Then Prof. W. J. Gies, instructor in physiological chemistry at Columbia, got up and said that the tests of the "roison squad" afforded nothing from which a fair deduction could be drawn. The ethical side was one thing, he said, and the practical side another.

Then Dr. Edward Gudenan, a chemist and food expert of Chicago, started in.

Then Dr. Edward Gudenan, a chemist and food expert of Chicago, started in.

"I don't believe Dr. Wiley believes everything he has said," was the way he began.

"The great trouble is that he is not consistent. Some of the circulars being issued nowadays from the Department of Agriculture seem to have a commercial aspect.

"If we put down something as a standard we can't turn around and say that something not up to that standard shall be accepted. Dr. Wiley issues an order that distilled wines containing .25 of 1 per cent. of fusel oil are impure, and then has the Pure Food Congress pass a resolution, that all goods bottled in bond shall be regarded as pure. We all believe in a pure food law, but the tendency in Dr. Wiley is toward yellow journalism. We are creating a class of 'yellow chemistry."

"Articles are appearing which seem to use his name or the name of his assistant, Dr. Bigelow, and all of them are highly sensational. We shall soon intr duce into our schools a class of sensational chemistry.

br. Bigelow, and all of them are highly sensational. We shall soon intr duce into our schools a class of sensational chemistry if this keeps up. Dr. Wiley is doing the best he can to frighten the public."

Dr. Gudeman was going on amid considerable excitement when the presiding officer rapped his gavel and made him stop. He said that Dr. Gudeman was getting away from the subject.

"I think such personalities as yellow chemistry do not belong here," he said, looking at Dr. Wiley, who hadmoved over to a far corner of the room.

"I think Dr. Wiley can defend himself," said Dr. Gudeman. "If he wants me to stop. I'll stop."

"I hope the gentleman will proceed," said Dr. Wiley. "I've been roasted before. I'm perfectly willing to be here. Anyway," he went on, "this is April Fool's Day."

Dr. Gudeman, referring to the whiskey regulations, said that the fact that a whiskey had the Government stamp of having learn fettled in bond didn't make it pure.

had the Government stamp of having been tottled in bond didn't make it pure, as every chemist knew.

"There is no such thing as pure whiskey and why say so. A chemist in an official position must be consistent. He has no business to allow something in one case and not in another.

If we want to have no deception in foods we've got to start in with the people who make the laws. Why is it that the State of make the laws. Why is it that the State of Pennsylvania passes a law prohibiting the use as preservatives of all except those that Dr. Wiley favors? There is a 'nigger in the woodplie' somewhere. If we examine some of the fifty-seven varieties we may find him. When we only take one side and try to frighten the public, it isn't right. The fact that not a single food chemist can point to any harm being done from the use of either preservatives or colors certainly should be taken into consideration."

or colors certainly should be taken into consideration."

Dr. Wiley didn't reply to Dr. Gudeman. After the 'atter had finished, Prof. William Hoff assailed Dr. Wiley for the pure food bill drawn up at the latter's instigation, which, he said, would outlaw 90 per cent. of the whiskey made in this country.

"Dr. Wiley," said Prof. Hoff, "says: Do you want a pure tood law? If you do, then you must accept my bill. Do you want a label law? If you do, then take my label law." We want both, but we don't want inconsistencies and errors crystallized into such jaws.

"The tests which he has made certainly should not furnish the basis for such a law until further investigations have been made I writter to say, and there isn't a scintilla of doubt about it, that you could take any tan men, give them something once a day for fifty days, and tell them that they were eating poison and at the end of that time they would all have lost flesh. Christian S leace would be the only antidote I know of."

WAR SWELLS BAD BOY RECORD. Stone Throwing Sends Up Children's Court Figures for the Winter Quarter.

E. Fellows Jenkins, chief probation officer of the Children's Court, submitted his report on parole cases for the first quarter of 1906 yesterday. In the three months 287 convicted juveniles have been paroled, 11 of them girls. Of these 180 have had their sentence suspended, while 46, two of them girls, have been committed for violating the parole. The number of rarcles is in about the usual proportion to the number of arrests, but the arrests for the quarter, 1,990, are in greater than for any previous winter quarter and are even ligger than the average for all quarters. Ligger than the average for all quarters.
Children's Court officers attribute the increase for this year to the Japanese war.
There have been days when there were as many as twenty, thirty and even forty tases of stone throwing cases in court. In the majority of these cases the boys had been divided into two armies, on Japanese and one l'ussian.

TWO ACCUSED OF EXTORTION.

a Beard of Health Inspector.

Joseph E. Jones, who has a real estate office at 234 West 116th street, was arrested and locked up in the East Sixty-seventh street police station yesterday afternoon by Detective Sergeant Byrnes, charged with extortion. George Long, an expressman, who lives at 170 West 107th street, was put in a cell on the same charge. Anton

I locked the doors so they couldn't get in."

Detective Byrnes found that Jones had bought a small wagon and when he went to look for it yesterday afternoon he found the wagon standing in front of Jones's real estate office. Jones was arrested at his home, 372 Manhattan avenue. The police say that he was hiding in a closet. The detective got into the louss by pretending to be a meter inspector Long was arrested later at his home.

Detective Byrnes says that Jones and Long tried the same game on Josefa Prachna, a Bohemian woman who keeps a candy store near Zitta's grocery. According to the detective, Jones told the woman she was selling cigarettes to minors.

woman she was selling digarettes to minors and that he would make trouble for her if she didn't square things with him.

PRINCETON COMIC OPERA.

The "Triangle" Has a Great Audience at the Waldorf and Makes a Hit.

Princeton's dramatic society, the Triangle Club, scored a hit last night with an original opera entitled "The Pretenders," which it presented in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf to a very sympathetic audience. medicines I say that the sooner you take | The large ballroom and the tiers of boxes were filled. Every song and every joke of the piece was greated with enthusiasm.

The piece is built on the usual comic opera plan-that is, on no plan at all. The programme tells that an American named Perkins, tired of his wife, flees to a seagirt isle in the Egean sea, under Turkish rule. It is the Isle of Appolenaire and gives opportunity for costume. The American's wife follows with her pretty daughters and they and the islanders generate comic over a complications that solve themselves. opera complications that solve themselves

The music was pleasant and abounded in catchy tunes. Songs entitled "Bache-lor's Honeymoon," "Hotairy Mary," "Goose-berry" and "Jimmy the Tout" made great hits.

The most amusing side of the production came, of course, from the tender and coquettish looking damsels, who spoke in the guttural bass of the tootball field. R. S. Barbee, 07, and G. S. Warren, '07, made particularly attractive girls. After the performance players and audience sang "Old Nassau."

Then came the locomotive yell, so dear to the Princeton heart.

the Princeton heart.

Mayor McClellan and many other prominent Princetonians were in the audience.

FIGHT OVER A PAPER.

Promoter Accuses the Brothers Short of Highway Robbery.

Two men who said they were brothers and gave the names of Orrin and Newton Short were struggling on the southeast corner of Columbus avenue and Sixtyfifth street last night with Mark Weighert, promoter. When Detective Coleman ran up Weighert cried out that he had been held up and robbed of a valuable co-partnership paper that lad been taken from his pocket and destroyed by Newton Short while Orrin Short held a knife at his short wante orrin short nett a kinte at his throat. There wasn't any knife in sight when the detective arrived. The Shorts didn't protest against being arrested on the charge of highway robbery, but they did have some remarks to make about Weighert. As near as the police could learn the two prisoners and Weighert had been in some business deal.

as GI West 105th street. lived at 101 West Sixty-third street.

LAWRENCE C. PHIPPS FINED. Has to Pay $25 for Speeding His Automoblie in Denver. DENVER, Col., April 1 .- Magistrate Stapleton believes that speeding an automobile ton believes that speeding an automobile at the rate of forty miles an hour on down-town streets is pretty near the limit. Accordingly he fined Lawrence C. Phipps $25 and costs to-day for so doing.

Yesterday Mr. Phipps was seen coming down Colfax street to Broadway running his automobile very fast. An officer stopped him, and after getting the number of the license summoned him to court. The fine was promptly paid by Mr. Phipps. He got some advice free as to the rate at which automobiles should be run.

"APRIL FOOL" CRY COSTS LIFE Chicago Crowd Wouldn't Rescue Browning

Man, Fearing It Was a Joke.

CHICAGO, April 1.-The cry of "April Fool" to-day brought to a stop the work of rescuing a young man who, while the noonday tide of travel was at its height, jumped into the river from the Madison street bridge and was drowned.

The cry of "man overboard" brought a hundred wouldbe rescuers to the spot, but the belief that the whole affair was an All Fools' day joke turned them from their purpose. The identity of the young man is unknown. The body was not recovered.

JEFFERSON DAY DINNER.

Parker Will Speak on the Future of the Democratic Party. The arrangements for the Jefferson day dinner of the Democratic Club have been completed. It was announced last night that the speakers would be:

Alton B. Parker, on "The Future of the Democratic Party"; Senator Edward W. Carmack of Tennessee, on "The World of Graft"; Augustus Van Wyck, Mayor Mc-Clellan, Joseph J. Willett of Nevada, Senator Francis Newlands of Nevada, D-Cady Herrick and Henry T. Rainey, the only mocrat elected to the next Congress from

The Weather.

The high pressure area shifted its centre yes-terday from Virginia to Canada, just north of the Lake regions, and in consequence the inds changed from a southerly to a northerly point and became cooler toward night in the middle Atlantic States.

New York and northern New England and it was cooler toward night in the middle Atlantic States.

The Southwestern storm was central over northern Teass, moving slowly eastward.

The winds were high in the Southwest, the Lake regions and upper Mississtppi Valley.

In this city the day was fair and slightly cooler toward night; wind fresh to brisk northerly; average humidity, 67 per cent.; barometer, corrected to read to see level, at 8 A. M., 30.23, 3 P. M., 30.19.

The temperature restarday, as recorded by the

The minimum, e0", at midnight. WASHINGTON FORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO-MCREOW

For restern New York, New England and eastern Pennsylvinna, fair to day and to morrow; warmer to morrow; fresh northwest to north winds, becoming

For New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and the Phistrict of Columbia, fair to-day and to-morrow-light to fresh north winds. For western Pennsylvania and western New York, fair to-4:y; increasing cloudiness and warmer to morrow; it as northern white, breaking vari-

Our system has introduced a Real Estate Man Said to Have Impersonated separate and distinct line of tailoring; very much below the fancy high-priced trades, so far as selling mark is concerned; yet their equal in quality and finish.

> ness of this assertion Burnham & Phillips Eustom Cailoring Only. 119 & 121 Massau St.

Our history for thirty seasons prives conclusively the correct.

WANTS ROOSEVELT FOR 1908.

EDWARD LAUTERBACH STARTS THIRD TERM BOOM AT DINNER.

Promise Not to Run "the One Promise He Shall Not Keep"-Commercial Association Men Cheer-Linn Bruce Tells Who Didn't Vote for Higgins.

Frederick H. Wilson, assistant chairman of the speakers' bureau of the national Republican committee, was the guest of nonor at a dinner given at the Republican Club last night, by representatives of the Jewellers', Dry Goods, Drug, Silk and Commercial Travellers' associations. Joseph W. Congdon was toastmaster and, after readng letters of regret from the President. Gov. Higgins and other prominent Repubicans, devoted some time to dropping honeyed words of praise all over Mr. Wilson. At the close of his remarks, made in rather a low voice, some one in the rear of the room called out:

The defendant has been convicted in this end of the room and we have not heard one word of the evidence.

A volca: "You are like most intelligent

Edward Lauterbach responded to the toast "The President." Before he began to speak the toastmaster asked the members to sing one verse of "America." Some confusion resulted from a difference in choice of verses and a grim determination of each member to stick to his particular

Following the song there were rousing cheers for the President, and then Mr. Lauterbach said:

"A treaty with Santo Domingo has nearly een accomplished without the consent of the Senate. From another man than Theodore Roosevelt such action would have perhaps brought revolt. But we have confidence in his giving every man and nation what he has himself called a 'square deal,' and our judgment is suspended. We know that he has never made the perhaps of the content of the conte pended. We know that he has never made a promise or undertaken an obligation without keeping that promise and fulfilling that obligation, but he has made one promise in all sincerity that he shall not keep if the future holds anything of the expected. The people of the United States have been taken by storm.

"And who can tell? I have, I believe, almost the vision of a prophet when I tell you that this great nation will say: Theodore Roosevelt, what has been done has been so well done that whether willingly or unwillingly you must again accept the highest office in our gift."

This suggestion of a third term for the President was received with tremendous cheers.

cheers.
Lieut.-Gov. M. Linn Bruce was intro-duced as "our next Governor," and re-ceived much applause as he arose. He said, in part:

"The State elections last fall showed that e people think and that the people vote the national and State tickets had run The Shorts didn't protest against being arrested on the charge of highway robbery, but they did have some remarks to make about Weighert. As near as the police could learn the two prisoners and Weighert that been in some business deal.

The two brothers gave their occupations as electricians. Orrin said he lived at 1947 Broadway and Newton gave his address as 61 West 165th street. Weighert said he and we owe a duty and an obligation to these people who came to our support." In closing, Lieut.-Gov. Bruce warned Republicans that a great victory is nearly as dangerous as a great defeat, and that the election of 1904 was not the last.

"If this party is to hold control of the State at the next election," he said, "it must meet the reasonable wishes of the poople."

Both Mr. Bruce and Mr. Lauterbach devoted considerable time to the discussion of the question of negro suffrage, and the latter expressed a belief that much would e accomplished by the President's Southern

Other speakers were John L. Shepherd

AGENT GONE: BOOKS TANGLED.

Union Selling Co. Discovers Apparent $10,000 Shortage in Boston Office,

BOSTON, Mass., April 1.-Since the disappearance on Feb. 17 of Capt. Charles W. Knapp, a prominent member of the Ancients and Boston agent of the Union Selling Company of New York, an examination of the books of the company has apparently rel vealed a deficiency of about $10,000.

Capt. Knapp was a trusted official, and the shortage is attributed to his illness. When he left the city he was in bad health. It is said that the irregularities extend over a very short time, which gives strength to the theory that the shortage may be due to the theory that the shortage may be due to Knapp's mental condition.

Horatio Davis, the manager of the Union Selling Company, said to-day that he personally was wholly unable to account for the condition of the books. He had been associated with Capt. Knapp for more than twenty years, and had the greatest confidence in his integrity.

"I have leaned him money of my own," said he, "without collateral security, and never had any difficulty in getting my pay. We have some experts now working pay. We have some experts now working on the books. We did not suspect that there was anything irregular until about ten days after Capt. Knapp went away. While the examination of the books has not yet been completed we feel that the shortage is about $10,000. This loss will fall on the company, as Capt. Knapp was not under bonds."

2,242 TELEPHONES

March in Manhattan and the Bronz.

159,307 were in service and under contract on

April 1, 1905. Efficient Service Reasonable Rates

New York Telephone Co. 15 Dey St. The state of the state of the state of The Mortgage Tax Bill. What It Means:

An annual tax of one-half of one per cent. on all mortgages, including those held by Savings Banks and Life Insurance Companies heretofore exempt.

Higher rates of interest on mortgages. Higher rents without additional profit to Mortgages liable to seizure and sale without notice.

A double tax on real estate, but only on such as is mortgaged. Unjust discrimination between mortgaged and unmortgaged real estate.

Foreign capital driven from the State. A direct tax on all buildings erected with borrowed money.

Depreciation of real estate values and stagnation in all building operations. Such a law will injure borrowers; will not benefit lenders; will depreciate real estate values; seriously cripple all building operations; and impose a heavy burden on all members of building and loan associations. The Legislature of this State proposes to pass this bill at once. Prompt, concerted and energetic co-operation by organizations and individuals interested in any way in real estate and building operations is needed in the attempt which will be made to persuade the Governor and Legislature that this proposed law is dangerous

All who are opposed to this bill should at once write to their representatives at Albany, protesting against the passage of the Act.

Allied Real Estate Interests

Executive Committee: Edward Van Ingen, Chairman, 49 Wail St.
Edmund L. Baylies, Treasurer, 54 Wail St.
Francis E. Ward, Secretary.

John Harsen Rhoades,
Robert W. De Forest,
Aifred E. Marling,
Aifred E. Marling,
Allen L. Mordecal.
B. Aymar Sands,
Aifred J. Boulton.

Aifred J. Boulton. Lawson Purdy, Bernard Mayer, J. Edgar Leaycraft, Henry L. Stimson, Frederick De P. Foster,

SMALL BOY DERAILS TRAIN. Got Inspiration From Novels-Did It "Just for Fon," He Said. PITTSBURG, April 1.-Because he wanted to see a real train wreck, the kind he had read about in the yellow backed books, Royal Grimen, a twelve-year-old boy of Coraopolis, piled ties and scrap iron in the path of the fast Cleveland flyer on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie road, and he laughed as he saw the long train, running thirty-five miles an hour, shoot from the track and bump over the ties for 100 yards finally stopping on the brink of a precipice.

More than 100 passengers had miraculous escapes from death. Royal was ledged in jail this afternoon as incorrigible and it is not known what will be done with him. He was arrested this afternoon by the detective of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie road at his father's home in Coraopolis, and confessed to having detailed the train "just for fun."

The entire Cleveland train was thrown from the track last night, but as no one from the track last night, but as no one was fatally injured the railroad company succeeded in suppressing the story until an arrest was made to-day.

OBITUARY.

James Madison Seymour, Mayor of Newark for three consecutive terms, beginning in 1896, died early yesterday morning at his home, $1 Mount Pleasant avenue of apoplexy. He was a candidate for Governor of New He was a candidate for Governor of New Jersev on the Democratic ticket in 1901 and had been a member of the State Board of Education for several years. Mr. Seymour was born in New York city in 1837. In 1859 he married Miss Amanda Elizabeth Crowell, daughter of David trowell of Springfield, Mass, who died four years later. Two years afterward her sister, Miss Anna J. Crowell, became Mrs. Seymour. She survives him, together with a son by the first wife, James Murray Seymour, and a son by the second wife, David C. Seymour. When Mr. Seymour was 2 years oid his father died, and seven years later his mother married a Spaniard, and the boy was taken to live in Spain. He went to school in Seville and learned both the Spanish and French languages. Later he became a mechanical engineer. During the civil war he went to Spain to superintend the manufacture of gun machinery for the Spanish Government. He was for a period master mechanic on the Havana and Matanzas Railroad in Cuba and was chief engineer of a large surar plant there. Late in the civil war he devoted his time to gunmaking, at the request of Gov. Andrew of Massachusetts. In 1865 he, with Daniel Whitlock, formed the firm of Seymour & Whitlock, manufacturers of machinery, in Newark, and the firm still exists. In 1883 he was appointed United States Commissioner to Spain by President Cleveland. In 1801 he was made State Supervisor of Prisons.

James Carroll McBurney died on Friday at the residence of his soa-in-law, Charles H. Dickson, 52 Summit avenue, Jersey City, in his seventy-ninth year. He was one of the organizers of the Sixty-ninth Regiment of New York and became one of its first Majors. He gave up large business interests in the South at the beginning of the civil war and joined the Northern forces. He was a staff officer of cients, Rosseau and Thomas C. Platt. Mr. McBurney was one of the first mustees of the First Presbyterian Church of Jersey City, which was organized in 1856. He also helped to organize the first building and loan association in the city Jersev on the Democratic ticket in 1901 and had been a member of the State Board of survived by an adopted daughter.

Everett Henry Thayer, son of Stephen Thayer, a well known New York writer and business man, died at his home in Yonkers on Friday. He was 30 years old and was especially prominent as a tennis champion and in the slee club. On leaving college he became associated in literary work with Charles Dudley Warner, Edmund Clarence Stedman and Hamilton Mable in the preparation of the "Library of the World's Best Literature." For the last six years he had been correspondent for Tiffany & Co. He was a member of the Apawamis, National Arte and University Glee clubs and of the Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Henry B. Caverly, an old time New York

Arts and University Glee clubs and of the Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Henry B. Caverly, an old time New York commission merchant, died yesterday at his home, 44 High street, Passaic, N. J. He was born in 1821. His grandfather served as Colonel under Washington and in the French and Indian War. In 1834 he started in the produce commission business in New York, and in 1890 he retired. He was a trustee of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Passaic. The funeral will be held from the home to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Frank E. Martin, a well known insurance man, died yesterday at his home in Mountain avenue, Liewellyn Park, West Orange. He was 5 years old and a native of this city. He had lived in Orange the greater part of his life. He was a member of the Easex County Country Club of West Oyance.

Halvey Kiki, a prominent Grangi county business man, is dead at Wilkid at the age of 73. He was a burther of Wilkid at the age of 73. He was burther of Wilkid at the age of 73. He was a burther of Wilkid at the age of 73. He was burther of Wilkid middle and provents as a country protector of Newburgh, and he knows

GIRLS OFFENDED AT PASTOR.

HE ISSUES A LETTER OF WARN-ING TO THE PUBLIC.

They Had the Sanction of Bishop Lines to Engage in Church Work and Went Ahead Despite the Pastor With Their Cake Sale, Which Proved Successful.

PATERSON, N. J., April 1.-The Girls' Friendly Society of Trinity Episcopal Parish, in this city, has been taken aback by the pastor of their church, the Rev. Archihald Judd, who issued to-day the following letter:

To whom it may concern: I feel that the public should be warned that patronage of the persons who style themselves the "Diocesan Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society of the Trinity Episcopal Church" will in no wise benefit the church mentioned. There is no such organization connected with the parish, nor has any sanction been given by either the rector or the vestry of the church for any of the events advertised under such auspices. Archibald M. Judd, Rector.

The trouble arises over a cake sale that was given by the society to-day at the home

The trouble arises over a cake sale that was given by the society to-day at the home of hiss Lucy Alien, 400 Totowa avenue. All the young women interested in the sale were indignant when they learned of the pastor's letter informing the public that their society was unauthorized. They showed to their friends at the sale this afternoon that they had received permission from Bishop Lines of Newark to hold the sale under the name of their society, and said that they would continue to hold all the affairs that the society had under way. The proceeds will be sent to Bishop Lines The proceeds will be sent to Bishop Lines or mission purposes. The trouble really dates back to the time when a reorganization took place as a result of criticisms made by the rector in regard to some of the society's doings. A consequence of the reorganization was the withdrawal of a great number of the society, who formed an association of their own outside the jurisdiction of the rector, although they all remained parishioners of Trinity Church. To receive some manner of church sanction a committee of the young ladies visited Bishop Lines last week. He advised them to place the words "Diocesan Branch" before the local title of their society, and said they then could engage in Church work with impunity. society, and said they then could engage in Church work with impunity.

The Rev. Mr. Judd's letter was the result of the advertisement of the cake sale. The letter had no sconer been issued than the brothers and friends of the young women gct busy. Within two hours after the letter was sent out, all the Totowa section of the city was placarded with posters and handbills telling of the nice cake that would be sold at Miss Allen's, and the result was a large attendance and a demand for cake that soon exhausted the supply on hand.

that soon exhausted the supply on hand. MINERS TAKE A HOLIDAY.

Observe Victory of Soft Coal Men by Not Working-Operators Will Ignore It. SCRANTON, Pa., April 1.-In observance of the adoption of the eight hour day in the of the adoption of the eight hour day in the bituminous field every mine but one in the Lackawanna region was idle to-day, the miners remaining away from the operations. The exception was the Oxford colliery, which it will be remembered was operated during the recent strike.

W. L. Connell, one of the coal operators, said he intended to ignore the matter, and it is understood that this policy will be pursued by all the coal companies.

New York & Hentucky Co., New York & Mentucky Co., of London, the contractors, have erected a corrugated iron house, 30 by 15 feet. In this the oil for f.lling erches is stored.

Saks & Company

Broadway, 33d to 34th Street.

Suits, Coats & Dresses for Women

Distinctive Spring & Summer Models. For the service of the discerning we present a collect. tion of spring and summer garments which we believe to be the most comprehensive, the most diversified and the most distinctive that our department has ever

SPECIAL FOR MONDAY.

Tailor Made Suits of fancy shepherd checks in Eton and long coat models.

Special at $29.00 Value $37.50 and $39.50 Bretelle Dresses of taffeta silk in black and a variety of colors with silk lined allover lace waist, and skirt with separate bodice suspenders.

Value $40.00, Special at $29.00 Lingerie Dresses of white linen beautifully hand embroidered. Value $35.00. Special at $24.50 Dresses of fine white organdy elaborately trimmed with wide valenciennes lace insertions and find tucking on both waist and skirt; made with crushed satin girdle and over white, light blue, pink, nile or heliotrope silk lining throughout.

Value $50.00. Special at $29.50

Mannish Top Coats of tan Worumbo covert cloth in box models. Value $30.00. Special at $19.50 Three-Quarter Coats of tan covert cloth in loose or fitted models.

Value $35, $39, and $42. Special at $27.50 Short Top Coats of tan covert cloth in six litted and semi-fitted models, silk lined. Special $15.00

We Are Prepared to Accept Furs for Storage

An Important Sale of Ribbons

It represents a merchandising event of extreme import -an event of which we have a right to be proud. The ribbons are in the very weaves and shades for which the demand is greatest-pompadour, dresden, ombre, taffeta, satin messaline and double faced liberty satin. The prices are one-half less than those which our contemporaries demand for the selfsame weaves

Value 650

to 95c

At 39c

Value 35c

to 55c

At 21c

Taffeta Sash Ribbon of extra fine quality] with satin edge, six and one-half inches wide, in all the most desirable Spring shades, as well as black, white or cream-Dresden and Pompadour Ribbon, from five to six inches wide, in a variety of designs, on light or dark grounds. Ombre Ribbons, in all the newest effects, such as sunrise, moire, with satin edge, faille with glaze back and satin ombre in a full complement of colors. Liberty Satin Ribbon, double faced, five inches; in white, cream, pink or blue. Double Faced Satin Ribbon, three and one-half inches in a variety of colors. Satin Messaline Ribbon, five to six inches wide, in all the light colors.

Failletine Ribbon, five to six inches wide, in a variety of colors. The new Loop Edge Ribbons, in all the millinery colors, as well as white or cream.

$7.75 Silk Petticoats at $5.95

They are of the finest taffeta in the pastel shades of champagne, parsifal, pink and light green, as well as brown, navy, green, mode, black and various changeable effects. The models are new, with accordion plaiting, and finished with ruching.

French Hand Made Underwear

At Prices Reduced About One-Half.

A collection of exquisite garments of the finest sheer fabrics to which the needle arts have given their all for elaboration. The models and styles are not alone distinctive, but to a degree exclusive. For the sake of an absolute clearance, the prices have been reduced about one-half.

Gowns. Formerly $6.90 to $18.50, at $5.95 to $9.95 Chemises. Formerly $5.95 to $11.90, at $2.98 to $7.95 Drawers. Formerly $6.95 to $12.50, at $3.95 to $7.95 Formerly $3.95 to $11.90, at $1.50 to $6.95 Covers. Formerly $5.00 to $20.00, at $2.98 to $14.50 Bridal Sets of three or four pieces.

Formerly $45.00 to $85.00, at $22.50 to $45.00

An Important Sale of Waists

Waists of excellent fabrics which may be laundered, in distinctive models, at almost one-half the standard Waists of sheer white lawn in open back model with fine tucking and yoke of valenciennes lace. Value $1.75. Special at $1.00 Waists of sheer white lawn in open back model with front of allover embroidery in various designs.

Value $2.50. Special at $1.50 Waists of washable white Japanese silk in two models trimmed with lace or hemstitched tucking. Value $4.50. Special at $2.98

FIRE NEAR 500,000 FEET OF GAS. | It was found tobe on fire by Night Engineer A gas tank which holds 500,000 cubic

Off Shed of the P. R. R. East River Tunnel Burned-First Misbap of the Enterpise. broke out at 8:30 o'clock last night in the

A fire which did about $1,000 damage oil house of the Pennsylvania Railroad. tunnel under the East River. At the foot of East Thirty-first street, near the tunnel entrance, S. Pearson & Son, incorporated feet is situated just opposite the oil house. The firemen allowed the oil to burn itself out and devoted their efforts to keeping out and devoted their enorts to seeping the gas tank wetted down.

Night superintendent W. E. Bush of the contracting company discovered that an employee had borrowed the key of the oil house from the watchman, and it is thought he struck a light and started the blazz. The watchman disappeared. This is the first accident that has haptered the Fast Fiver tunnel. the Fast Piver tunnel.